DHARMENDRASINH.M.JADEJA (HAKUBHA) VISITS G P JAMNAGAR

Dharmendrasinh.M.Jadeja (Hakubha) is talented & an independent-minded leader with an enthusiastic temperament, charismatic speaking skills and a knack for consensus-building. His values are strongly shaped by his expertise as local public services. While private by nature, Hakubha mingles easily with others, but is most comfortable addressing large crowds. Hakubha is known for being unafraid to speak and hear hard truths when necessary. Although armed with shrewd political sensibilities, he's sometimes slow to recognize viable threats to his agenda.

He had visited Government Polytechnic Jamnagar for three functions viz first ANUBANDHAM" A New Umbrella for Bridging Aspirant's Needs through Direct Hiring between job Applicants & eEmployers., registration of students in this app, secondly RTPCR testing of students and 3rd was farewell of his near and dear friend Mr. Murima from the college.

125TH BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF ZAVERCHAND MEGHANI

Poetry recitation competition

On the occasion of 125th birth anniversary of Zaverchand Meghani, a Gujarati poet and social reformer, Chief Minister Vijay Rupani on Saturday allocated Rs 5 crore for building a museum at his birthplace, Chotila in Surendrnagar district.

Talking about the contribution of Meghani, the chief minister said, "He was born in Chotila, but his 'karmabhoomi' was Botad; he was a journalist in phool-chab and Janmbhoomi and later he participated in the independence struggle under Mahatma Gandhi."

"In the past, Gujarati leadership had guided the entire country and had helped in giving the country swarajya. Now (Prime Minister) Narendra Modi and (Home minister) Amit Shah is leading and providing good governance," he added.
